'Father, marry me to this man. Either I will live, or I will become a ransom for the children of Muslims and save them from him. "By. Kah! I will not marry you to a man who will not respect my family and will not honor my son. "So what should I do, father? I so want them to become husband and wife." "I said everything: either you will become a ransom for the children of Christians, or you will be a ransom for the children of Muslims." "God, I can't do this." "Then I will be damned, for I cannot pass you off as a man who will not respect my family and will not honor my son." Then the woman, not knowing what to do, began to cry.
