This year it was all the more impressive as some of the world's leading teams visited Zagreb and the surrounding area. The orange and blue of FC Barcelona flaunted their skills at the Modrić Stadium where they dominated, the three goals they scored as a team more than merited one of their prizes for the victory. Last season the super league club could only manage a third-placed finish, but this time they were determined to make up for lost time. The homegrown squad, spearheaded by the likes of Serhiy Rebrov and Ivan Rakitić, gave Barça a 3-0 lesson as they showed they are one of the elite across Europe. Ivan Rakitić's red card There were relatively few surprises on a balmy October night at the Modrić Stadium as well, with the two sides evenly matched throughout the entire 90 minutes. The Barça centre-backs, the Dutch pair of Jérémie Aliadière and Thomas Vermaelen, and Dejan Lovren, comfortable at right-back, bore the brunt of the home side's attacks. With Rakitić red-carded at the start of the second half, Barça's fantastic record of never having lost in the Croatian capital now began to stand the test of time. Cristiano Ronaldo and Raul Cristiano Ronaldo pounced on a stray clearance to fire the visitors ahead and then the Real Madrid icon's strike partner, the man of the match and Spain's top scorer of all time, R 3ef4e8ef8d
