1. Open your image and create a new layer. 2. Click with the Marquee tool, and use the selection method described in Figure 10-6 . Figure 10-6: The selection method is the easiest way to create a selection for the image of the blue banner. 3. Activate the Rectangle Selection tool, and then use the three options in the options bar as outlined in Figure 10-7 . 4. Repeat Steps 1–3 for the other colors in your image. Figure 10-7: Use the Rectangle Selection tool with the three options outlined in the options bar. You can also use the Magic Wand tool to select the areas of your image. Figure 10-8 demonstrates using the Magic Wand tool to find the blue background and black logo. Figure 10-8: The Magic Wand tool enables easier selection of a large area. You can then use the options bar to select similar colors and align them. 5. Click the current selection option on the left in the options bar to select the color. 6. Repeat Steps 2–5 for all the different colors in your image. 7. If the colors align, your image should look like Figure 10-9 . You can repeat the steps to create more shapes with all the colors in the image. Figure 10-9: A selection for the blue background and black logo.
