What's New in the Tuber-YouTube Downloader?

Tuber-YouTube Downloader is a lightweight software application that helps with downloading videos from YouTube so you can store them on your computer for offline viewing. It can be deployed on all Windows flavors out there. Minimalist looks You are welcomed by a small panel that gathers all configuration parameters in a single window. A help manual is not included in the package but the setup parameters look very easy to tweak so you are not going to spend a lot of time learning how to work with this program. Video downloading options Tuber-YouTube Downloader gives you the possibility to paste the URL copied to the clipboard directly in the main window. In addition, you are allowed to pick the saving directory and select the preferred output format, namely MP4, WebM, FLV, or 3GP. What's more, you can choose between several video profiles that differ in quality, start or pause the downloading process, as well as get information about the current clip, like resolution, video profile, video and audio bitrate, and video/audio encoder. Tests have shown that Tuber-YouTube Downloader carries out the downloading process quickly and without errors. It offers very good output results. It does not eat up a lot of CPU and memory resources so the overall performance of the computer is not affected. Final remarks All things considered, Tuber-YouTube Downloader comes packed with several handy functions for helping you grab YouTube clips and export them to different video formats on your drive. The intuitive feature package makes it suitable for rookies and professionals alike. On the downside, it does not offer support for batch actions so you cannot download multiple videos at the same time. Tuber-YouTube Downloader 3.0 Review The idea behind Tuber-YouTube Downloader is rather straightforward and easy to grasp for everyone. You might need some practice to get to grips with it but after a few attempts you will know how it works and what it can be used for. Therefore, Tuber-YouTube Downloader can be classified as a simple and intuitive tool that is certainly useful for those who frequently watch YouTube videos on their computer and want to be able to save them so they can be viewed whenever they wish.
