Principles of Teaching 1 by Corpuz, B. & Salandanan, G. (2013). Unit 3 Chapter 1.pdf. A modular approach allows teachers to incorporate into their courses materials and activities from other subject areas in the course for which they are teaching. Schools take a modular approach in order to cover school subjects that are slow to take root. Teachers who teach subjects that are not well understood may take a modular approach, teaching all of the content of their subject, but in a separate subject such as or else an extra subject.
