Automate vlc Help for Audacious Description It is a very very good program for using some options of the VLC. However, there is one little problem that doesn't work with the -noaudio option. It is because Audacious uses ALSA (which is in a different way of VLC). This script just reverts to the option that VLC uses. At least five homes were burned to the ground Sunday in a confrontation with local residents that police believe involved two rival drug gangs. The full extent of the damage is unclear because of the flames and thick smoke, but the confrontation appears to have involved the local gang Westside, which is not involved in the drug trade, and the Pacific Northeast gang, which does traffic marijuana and cocaine. A burned-out vehicle and a motorcycle were also damaged in the confrontation, according to police. The unidentified suspect in the incident was arrested Sunday afternoon for weapons charges, police said. The incident began about 11:30 a.m. when two men arrived at a residence on Olcott Avenue
