What's New In?

-------------------------- Indict is a dictionary, the word on the left is in English, the word on the right is in Indonesian. In order to improve the Indonesian and English dictionary, we always check the existing words and adapt them to the way they are read. This version is a translation version from the current English version. Features: ------------ · A free dictionary, all words in history. · Add words for to add words to dictionary from internet. · Dictionary is search searchable and you can filter search for only Engrish or Indonesian. · Contains browser to help you translate all words from the Engrish or Indonesian dictionary to the English or Indonesian (everything is at your fingertips!) · You can copy the search engines for your own use. · One click translation · Dictionary can be opened in full screen · You can copy every word you find from your dictionary to the clipboard · Bookmarks can be used in your dictionary (all words in your bookmarks are stored in the history) · Filter search results to only a language or any country · Data is saved in the internal memory and can be copied to the memory card for you to reuse. · There is a Full screen version of the dictionary. (and you can use all the features in it) · Easy to use, only two buttons to enter words and pictures · Easy to select a word to translate (selecting a word is a little more complicated in the previous versions, for example, if you have typing English is very inconvenient, as it has to type the English word, you can use the search-engrish feature where you type a word in English and the search engine looks for it. Another thing was that the selection of a word it self was not very convenient and it always tended to make additional windows. There is a button in the Indonesian dictionary called Search-Engrish, and it translates the selected word to English, but it only translates the word and ignores the grammar, so it is no longer used. · It can also translate the selected word for you, and display the translation in the bottom left corner of the screen · Related words can be displayed, for example the related words that appear after the word entered for "lotus" · There is a browsing feature where you can browse word by word. This is a very useful feature if you want to switch between Indonesian and English. · You can assign a symbol to a word, and if you hit the "find"
