military killed a number of Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps troops as well as a large weapons convoy in a drone strike Thursday. The deployment of the additional forces, a Pentagon official said, will be made public in the next few days. The size of the new contingent was based on its expected usefulness in ensuring the continued safety of American forces and assets and the continued provision of necessary services, the officials said. Military planners now must decide where it will be deployed in the region, a determination to be made at an altitude higher than the commander in chief's approval. Former Giants two-sport standout Larry Allen retiring They may have won championships together on the football field, but Larry Allen and Phil Simms have one thing in common: They are also both passing away. Allen, a linebacker who retired after the 2015 season, passed away after suffering
