System Requirements For QuickPar:

To play Combat Arms, you need a computer that has a GPU that can handle the graphics. This means that at a minimum your computer needs to have a DirectX 9 capable GPU, or OpenGL 1.1. The minimum requirements on a single-core CPU are a Pentium 4 or newer and an AGP-capable video card. You will need a monitor with at least 1280x1024 resolution, and a keyboard. A mouse will be useful, too. Windows Vista is strongly recommended. For more information, see the game's official requirements. Some graphics cards on the
