The secret sauce is its database engine, called Hadoop, which means it was developed by some huge companies like Yahoo! and Cloudera. Nowadays, it is also used in more than 140 companies to process massive amounts of data. What do you do with the data? You can visualize it using a range of visualization and data visualization tools. This will enable you to make strategic decisions about the future of your company, improve decision-making, gain insights, and gain a competitive advantage. Dynamics of InP/GaAs quantum well lasers. Current performance and energy threshold of a laser at 0.9 microm based on InP/GaAs quantum wells are measured and the space-charge-limited current threshold is observed. The performance is strongly affected by the temperature of the gain medium. The threshold of a continuous-wave laser is predicted by the impact of the space-charge effect on the threshold current. The threshold current is 2.5 times the measured value. The current density and the laser emission wavelength are determined by the GaAs band
