The purpose of a required hearing in the present instance is to give the board a chance to correct any unlawful exercises of authority by a lower school principal. This purpose, like that involved in the hearing before the Bureau of Child Welfare, is to safeguard the interests of the minor. The court is open to the contention that the welfare of minors can be more effectively attended to by a school board than by a court. The board must have the opportunity to correct wrongs and to maintain an orderly education system in which proper discipline is enforced and proper administration 3e33713323
