AutoCAD Crack+ Free For PC (Latest)

This comprehensive guide to AutoCAD is an introduction to using AutoCAD with a focus on editing. First we discuss the basic steps involved in creating and editing drawings and then show you how to work with layers and blocks. Note: AutoCAD comes in three main versions: AutoCAD, AutoCAD LT and AutoCAD LT 2019. AutoCAD LT (formerly known as AutoCAD Drafting Edition) is the free version of AutoCAD and is the only version supported in this guide. (The term "AutoCAD" is used to mean any of the three major versions.)

Section List Create Your First Drawing Before you start using AutoCAD, you will need to create your first drawing. This simple drawing is used throughout the guide to walk you through the key points of AutoCAD editing, so you can then create your own drawings, based on this guide.

1 Open AutoCAD and choose File ► New ► Draw ► Other ► 2D Drawing from the menu bar. 3 When the drawing is ready, choose View ► Window ► Zoom. 4 Increase the Window Zoom to +25 and increase the View Zoom to +60. 5 When the drawing is zoomed into and shown on the screen, move the cursor to the lower left corner of the drawing area. 6 Click on the Zoom button at the lower right of the Windows display. Drawing Zoom: By clicking the button at the lower right of the Windows display, you can zoom in and out of your drawing. Zoom in/out of the drawing: When you click the button at the lower right of the Windows display, you can zoom in and out of the drawing. Working in the Drawing Window Creating your first drawing, shown above, was just the first step in your journey of learning AutoCAD. It is now time to work in the drawing area, which is shown below. Windows display showing the drawing area of AutoCAD. You now have a full screen drawing area. Because you want to learn how to work with AutoCAD editing, you need to first make a few changes to the appearance of the drawing area. 1 If the Windows display is not showing the drawing area by default, choose View ► Windows ► Show in the menu bar and choose Drawing Area from

KIRKLAND, Wash. (AP) — The judge in the case of a former Olympic skier who had sex with a 17-year-old boy at a high school party said Thursday that she was satisfied with how the case was handled. During a hearing at Lewis County Superior Court, Judge Gretchen Spoden said that she wouldn't entertain any motions for a new trial in the case of former Olympian Sarah Hendrickson. Spoden sentenced Hendrickson to 48 hours in jail for violating a restraining order. She is also required to complete 50 hours of community service and 30 days of electronic monitoring. A jury convicted Hendrickson last August of second-degree rape of a child for allegedly having sex with a 17-year-old at a party. Prosecutor Amy Sweasy said Hendrickson's lawyer made a "poor decision" to have his client testify at trial, but that he should have taken a better stand. Hendrickson testified Thursday that she had sex with the teen a1d647c40b
