FULL WARRANTY Antenna.wav loops range from 2KHz to 8KHz. If you have problems with sound samples, please check if your player supports playing wav files longer than 2KHz, most of them do. If you still don't hear sound, it can be the result of the invalid value of loop pitch. So, please check the loop pitch and reset it. This application cannot be used as a "softwarekeygenerator" that generates a key based on a guess of the character name. There is an installation/uninstallation log that can be used as a trace for fixing errors. A special thanks to all our excellent beta testers who helped with testing this application before release! ABOUT: Antenna.wav by themanhunter2k may include all the copyright notices and license information that need to be in a compiled application. These notice and license information are not shown in the plugin, as they can be found in the Antenna.wav file itself, if you want to know more, send me a PM. This is a professional Antenna.wav plugin for the Windows system. This is a good solution for those who want to hide their Skype calls from their baby or the boss and who want to be able to use a sound sample for their sounds files without changing the original sound file. If you prefer to use other Skype recorder plugins, they are listed in the "Screenshots" tab. If you need to use real Skype calling sounds, you can
