Don't waste another day. Rejoin your team and resume productivity tomorrow with Ping Tester. Ping Tester is a no-nonsense tool to check your connection to the Internet, let alone determining why. Ping Tester will test the connection from every browser in your computer to every site on the Internet. See on any site whether you're online or not. Ping Tester checks if each site is available on the Internet, and gives you all the information about ping time, packet loss, transferred/received data and more! Protect your Internet connection speed with your firewall. Ping Tester comes with many firewall detectors integrated to give you maximum security, so you can set it up to check your connection from one hour to several days in advance. Monitor your computer with Ping Tester, just as you would your DSL modem. Check your computer's Internet connection in real time. Ping Tester can test your computer's connection to the Internet for any sites without even running a browser. Block your Internet connection when it's too slow to use. Ping Tester will detect Internet connection bottleneck, such as the case of a slow DSL line. Never wait again for the Internet to load. Ping Tester is the best application to check the Internet connection if you're on a dial-up or a low speed Internet connection. Ping Tester is fully customizable. You are free to add your own custom sites to Ping Tester, and determine what ping time and number of pings to check. Ping Tester is easy to use, lightweight and has no registry requirements. No need to install a library, so that Ping Tester can run with no problems on any PC that you install it on. Don't make the mistake of buying internet bandwidth and not getting the price. Many times it's cheaper to buy your bandwidth from a provider with a high ping than a cheaper provider with a low ping. Ping Tester is created to be simple to use. Built with the same goal in mind, Ping Tester comes with an easy to use and intuitive interface. As a result, when you run Ping Tester, it will be the fastest and most easiest way to check your Internet connection, to determine if the problem is with your Internet connection, your modem, or with your computer. ## What's New In?

The app has a simple interface that should be easy to figure out, thanks to the intuitive layout. The program can be used to ping various websites in order to perform network tests. There are several addresses already filled in, but additional ones can be created as well by simply filling in the IP or URL. Multiple Ping parameters can be adjusted from the program's interface. For instance, you may set up the time interval between two packets, as well as the buffer size. The maximum timeout value can be set as well as the number of pings. The packets can be sent continuously, which means the program can only be stopped manually. The ping checker can be launched immediately or at a certain time. In order to schedule a session, you must choose the time and date between which the app runs the tests. Once a test is completed, the program lets you know the total number of packets sent and received, the loss rate, minimum and maximum ping time and the port's status. All in all, Ping Tester - Professional is a nice tool that can be quite useful if you often need to ping various web addresses. This app can be purchased in the Google Play Store and iTunes. It's available in English, Spanish, French, Italian, and Portuguese. Rep. Justin Amash has gained an unlikely ally in his fight against President Trump: Joe Biden. The Michigan Republican, a libertarian-leaning conservative, challenged the president on Friday after Trump's attorney Rudy Giuliani told The Daily Caller that Trump's term could legally be extended if Congress could not come up with the money to put him in office. "There are ways of doing things that are outside the criminal codes, and he should be impeached," the former vice president told CNN on Sunday. Asked if he would bring the president up on impeachment charges, Biden said, "Absolutely." Biden said it was clear Trump committed "many impeachable offenses" in office. "There's so many things they did," Biden said Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press." "This is a guy who went from working for the mob, who was a lawyer, to being a law professor. If I were to sum it up, he's a very smart guy, but sometimes his brilliance actually outsmarted himself. This is just a classic case of, you know what, he's a good lawyer, but he
