FIFA 22 introduces a new club system that allows players to simulate throughout any real life club's season and create unique club experiences by combining key trends from different clubs. The new club system also increases the emphasis on players' personality and individuality, while providing more decisions about how they perform such as ability, discipline, and work ethic. FIFA 22 introduces "EA Trajectory Control," a sophisticated AI that creates "Humanoid" players that move and perform just like real human players. EA Trajectory Control unlocks new levels of fluidity and realism for AI teammates and creates the Ultimate Team experience of building your real life squad of players. New Gameplay Features: FIFA 22 introduces "Goalkeeper of the Future," a brand new goalkeeper control scheme that enables players to be more agile and adaptable with increased individual control. This new control scheme has been tested on the entire team and will be released after the final game is finished. FIFA 22 introduces new ways of creating gameplay, with revised Player Instincts. Instincts are now more flexible and adaptable to quickly responding to changing situations in-game. FIFA 22 introduces "Personal Opinion Score," an in-depth intelligence system that captures which players and players' behaviours are rewarded by the community, so fans can see more clearly the impact their club actions are making in-game. FIFA 22 introduces "Take Me Home" a service that allows players to live their career in the community and be closer to their club by sending fans' individual performance stats to a digital locker system. This can then be used to unlock virtual items, such as player appearances in the Community World Cup. FIFA 22 introduces "Passing Analysis." The "AnalysePass" system is a new interactive intelligence tool which is used to predict how your passes will develop over time. You can now receive feedback as your passes change and develop in the game. FIFA 22 introduces "Dribbling Analysis". You can now receive feedback on how well your off the ball passes and runs are developing through a new interactive intelligence system. FIFA 22 introduces "Left/Right" cameras, which include new perspectives and camera angles to give fans the feeling of being inside a stadium and always being at a premium view. FIFA 22 introduces the return of Fights, which are now more exciting, with greater consequences to their finishing and

We're not sure when the beta is going to be ready, however we do know that it will include some of the features, such as the garage editor, customisation, matchday, and career mode. While there is a sign up to enter the beta the current verdict is that there is not enough time to complete it before the release of the game. We'll have more news as it becomes available, and will be sure

What's new:

- Time to score! The console release of FIFA 22 brings you the most diverse, authentic and realistic way to score. - Experience a new commentator, to hear more involved words and catch more moments throughout the match. - The in game foul system has been totally re-designed, to offer a fairer, more accurate and funmatic way to celebrate big goals and so avoid the excessive number of own goals in previous FIFA versions. - Play with the most natural movement of players on football pitches, with improved physiques, to make you feel and see like a true football star.
- A new addition to Training camp is the new "ACL," which brings an innovative depiction of how football can be. You can make your team simulated a training camp for extra personal feedback and performance optimization. - Also, start your season as a team of 13 players to enjoy a complete squad, as it is recorded in real life. - Learn new skills, earn new badges and earn a different contract that can change the playing style and the formation of your team.
